

STEFANO VACCARI,
born in Rome in 1963.

Stefano Vaccari works at the Italian Ministry of agriculture food and forestry policies since 26 year and he is currently Director General of the executive services.

Following to his agricultural/technical studies at the high school, he has graduated in economics at the University of Rome “La Sapienza” and he is member of the Italian society of agricultural economists (SIDEA) .

During his long carrier he has played several roles:

- director general of agro-food development and quality of the ministry of agriculture;
- Commissioner at the Ente Nazionale Risi (the National Body for Rice);
- deputy chief of the Legal Office of the Ministry of agriculture;
- manager at the Cabinet of the Minister
- member of the commission of investments evaluation at the Ministry of agriculture;
- Officer of the National Forestry Corps:

He has directly participated in drafting the Italian law on the orientation of agriculture and the forestry sectors.

Stefano Vaccari is one of the main Italian experts on agricultural public support and he has issued many publications and books on agricultural expenditure. He has taught at “La Sapienza” and “Roma 3” Universities, and at the Scuola Superiore S. Anna at the University of Pisa, (Master on development and production control).

He cooperates with the major Italian research institutes of agriculture as expert on agricultural development and public policies.

Further information about Stefano Vaccari are available at the following address:

<http://www.politicheagricole.it/flex/cm/pages/ServeBLOB.php/L/IT/IDPagina/451>

You can contact Mr. Stefano Vaccari at this e-mail:

s.vaccari@politicheagricole.gov.it